

Waiting on the LORD

Not only should we begin with praise, but time also should be given to being “quiet” in God’s presence. This is not meditation or just a time for listening; it is simply taking time to let God love you.

“Be still in the presence of the Lord, and wait patiently for Him to act. Don’t worry about evil people who prosper or fret about their wicked schemes.” ~Psalm 37:7 (NLV)

“But those who wait on the Lord will find new strength. They will fly high on wings like eagles. They will run and not grow weary. They will walk and not faint.” ~Isaiah 40:31 (NLB)

“O God you have declared me perfect in your eyes.” ~Psalm 4:1 (LB)

“Blessings chase the righteous.” ~Proverbs 13:20 (LB)

“For the Lord delights in you.” ~Isaiah 62:4 (LB)

“He led me to a place of safety; he rescued me because He delights in me.” ~Psalm 18:19 (LB)

“Christ has given each of us special abilities—whatever He wants is to have out of his rich storehouse of gifts.” ~Ephesians 4:7(LB)

“He will rejoice over you with singing.” ~Zephaniah 3:17 (CW)

“God wants to use you to attract others to Him with the glorious riches of this revealed mystery.” ~Colossians 1:27(CW)

“There is nothing more needed in the work than the practical results of communion with God. We should hold convocations for prayer, asking the Lord to open the way for the truth to enter the strongholds where Satan has set up his throne, and dispel the shadow he has cast athwart the pathway of those whom he is seeking to deceive and destroy.” ~Heavenly Places, p 93

“He longs to have you reach after Him by faith. He longs to have you expect great things from Him. He longs to give you understanding in temporal as well as in spiritual matters. ~Christ’s Object Lessons, p 146
